

The Property Institute's 2023 IN REVIEW

2023 has been a busy year for The Property Institute. Alongside its policy work and industry wins, TPI has delivered more guidance, training and qualifications to a growing membership base.

Membership Growth

Company ARMA members

329

A year-on-year rise of 7%

Individual IRPM members

6,269

A year-on-year rise of 8%

Qualifications

685

Level 2 Foundation Course & Exam in Leasehold Management awarded

118

Level 4 Member Course and Exam in Leasehold Management

213

Level 3 Association Course & Exam in Leasehold Management awarded

200+

Number of TPI professionals awarded BTR qualifications

Training

2,486

Total training course attendees

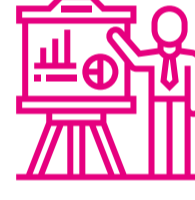

55%

Increase in training participants

14,273

Hours of CPD training

91

Number of training courses delivered

Events

791

Annual Seminar attendees

558

TPI Regionals Combined attendees

500

Annual Conference attendees

580

ACE Award attendees

Industry Success

First full year of The Property Institute following the 2022 merger of ARMA and IRPM. The new professional body has expanded its offering to both sets of members and is now a larger voice when speaking to Government and the industry.

20+ responses to Government consultation papers/calls for evidence in areas including building safety, insurance commissions and leasehold reform.

20+ meetings with MPs, Peers and Lee Rowley (Building Safety Minister).

10 Parliamentary Questions tabled by MPs following submission by The Property Institute.

Regular (six-weekly) calls with the DLUHC Remediation Team.

TPI Regional events reached members across the country, attracting over 500 attendees from Southampton, Newcastle, Birmingham, Manchester and London.

THE PROPERTY INSTITUTE